

Welcome to the Art & Wine Festival!

The City of Santa Clara and the Parks and Recreation Commission welcome you to the 30th Annual Santa Clara Art & Wine Festival. It is our privilege to be your host in beautiful Central Park and to invite your participation in the variety of Festival activities.

Hundreds of volunteers, dozens of community organizations, and the Parks and Recreation staff have worked vigorously to provide you with the finest Festival experience possible. Generations of Santa Clara residents will tell you that the Santa Clara Art & Wine Festival truly represents the best of “the Mission City,” an active and proud community.

As you enjoy the food, wine, entertainment and friendships new and old, remember that 100% of the Festival proceeds support programs and services that help almost every aspect of the Santa Clara community. The Parks and Recreation Commission thanks you for contributing and building community spirit.

Enjoy!

Sincerely,

Parks and Recreation Commissioners
